20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Service (HHS) is responsible for a wide range of activities that include monitoring for emerging issues and concerns as they relate to medical and public health preparedness and response; developing, overseeing, and providing guidance for implementation of national preparedness goals for disasters of all types at the federal, state and local levels; identifying, conducting responses to, and recovery from public health and medical emergencies; assisting other federal agencies responsible for aspects of planning for, responding to, and recovering from public health emergencies. The NACIDD shall provide advice and consultation to the Secretary of HHS to assist them in carrying out these and related activities as they pertain to the unique needs of individuals with disabilities in preparation for, responses to, and recovery from all-hazards emergencies and disasters.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

Members shall be appointed by the HHS Secretary from among the nation's preeminent scientific, public health, and medical experts in areas consistent with the purpose and functions of the advisory committee. The HHS Secretary, in consultation with such other heads of federal agencies as may be appropriate, shall appoint a maximum of 17 members to the NACIDD, ensuring that the total membership is an odd number. The NACIDD shall consist of at least seven non-federal voting members, including a Chairperson, including: at least two non-federal health care professionals with expertise in disability accessibility before, during, and after disasters, medical and mass care disaster planning, preparedness, response, or recovery; at least two representatives from State, local, Tribal, or territorial agencies with expertise in disaster planning, preparedness, response, or recovery for individuals with disabilities; and at least two individuals with a disability with expertise in disaster planning, preparedness, response, or recovery for individuals with disabilities. The NACIDD shall also have up to 10 federal, non-voting members (ex officio), including the following officials or their designees: the Assistant Secretary for Preparedness and Response; Administrator for the Administration for Community Living; Director of the Biomedical Advanced Research and Development Authority; Director of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention; Commissioner of Food and Drugs; Director of the National Institutes of Health; Administrator of the Federal Emergency Management Agency; Chair of the National Council on Disability; Chair of the United States Access Board; and the Under Secretary for Health of the Department of Veterans Affairs.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The NACIDD shall meet not less than biannually, including at least once per year in person, and may convene more often as needed when requested by the DFO.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The National Advisory Committee on Individuals with Disabilities and Disaster is required by section 2811C of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. § 300hh-10d), as amended, by the Pandemic and All-Hazards Preparedness and Advancing Innovation Act (PAHPAIA), Public Law No. 116-22.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

Meetings will be open to the public.
